Bruges - rue St.Clare: 1568-1578:

The following died at BRUGES during this period:

1571. D. Thomas Synderton; formerly of Hull: d. 17 or 23 September 1570: 'qui 50 annis laudabiliter vixit in Ordine'.
D. John Mitchel, prof. and procurator of Sheen, formerly prior of Witham (1536-1539), convisitor of the English province: d.15 October 1570: 'qui 67 annis laudabiliter vixit in Ordine'.
1573. D. Thomas Shelley, prof. of Sheen: d. 7 August 1572.
D. William Holmes, novice (priest) of Sheen. Long - p.72 - says he was the first to die at Louvain in 1578. ? Is this the same as the Dom William Holmes mentioned by Gasquet as a signatory to the Deed of Surrender of Hinton? He seems to think so - see his HENRY VIII AND THE ENGLISH MONASTERIES, vol.ii, p.486 fn.
1574. D. William Bennet, d. 12 August 1573.
1576. D. Thurstan or Tristram Hickmans, prof. of London, 2 of Sheen; vicar of Hull in 1532; procurator of Witham at the Dissolution: d. 6 December 1575.
D. Leonard Hall alias Stops, prof. of Mount Grace, 2 of Sheen: d. 10 October 1575.
Br. George Ferry, conv. novice of Sheen: d.26 Oct.1575.
Br. HUGH TAYLOR, conv. prof. of London, 2 of Sheen: d. 30 September 1575: 'qui 57 annis laudabiliter vixit in Ordine'.

NB: The Mapledurham Ms. p.176 gives the date of the death of Dom Leonard Stops as 3 February 1570; whilst Long p.96 gives it as 3 February 1579. This may be an error on the part of the scribe: but how are we to compare it with the date (and name) given supra?
